To Missouri Citizens:

This is the 122nd edition of the Missouri Department of Insurance's "Annual Report and Statistical Data" covering the calendar year 1991. Since this report was first published in 1869, much has changed within the insurance industry; and as a result, much has changed in how this department regulates insurance. But, throughout the years, one thing has remained constant. That is the commitment this department has to protecting the public's interest. Because of that commitment, we continue to strive to enhance the services we provide.

In 1991, the Division of Insurance became the Department of Insurance. And with that change, came renewed emphasis and more resources for providing assistance to Missouri consumers.

The Division of Consumer Affairs within the department, has been expanded in order to provide more information to the insurance buying public, and to investigate consumer fraud cases. Consumer fraud is a growing concern because fraudulent claims drive up the cost of all forms of insurance, and unfortunately, that cost is borne by all people who pay premiums.

In order to undertake this increased responsibility, the Special Investigations Section within the Division of Consumer Affairs has added an attorney, a paralegal and two investigators. In addition to taking on consumer fraud cases, they continue to investigate consumer complaints regarding insurance agencies and agents. The legal advisor assists the investigators, as well as the consumer representatives, in reviewing legal questions regarding consumer complaints and preparing cases which have the potential for legal action. Even before adding these additional staff members, last year this division fielded 64,121 complaints and inquiries in which they recovered $6.7 million for Missouri consumers.

A public information officer has also been added to the department in order to inform the public about insurance related issues through communication with the media and through informational brochures.

As always, we encourage consumers to communicate with us by calling our toll-free hotline if they have an insurance problem. A phone line has also been added for communication with the deaf.

Due to our new departmental status, the Missouri General Assembly has also passed a great deal of insurance legislation during the last three sessions. Much of it is designed to increase the regulatory authority of the department. These legislative changes, as well as changes made in the department's budget structure, are designed to meet the standards required by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners for departmental accreditation.

As the department enters its 123rd year, we are finding that insurance is playing an increasingly important role in the economic lives of our citizens. The cost and availability of insurance are important issues. But, only a strong and financially sound insurance industry can provide the stability for economic growth and competition that is necessary to provide reasonable insurance costs.

For these reasons, the department continues to work at creating a sound industry in Missouri, and to stress the importance of an informed citizenry.

Sincerely,

Lewis E. Melahn
Director

MISSOURI DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

The major objective of the Missouri Department of Insurance is to protect the public by ensuring that insurance companies are financially sound and offer consumers fair contracts at fair prices.

In addition to the department's commitment to protecting the public interest, it also has an obligation to assist the insurance industry by providing consistent, unbiased and equitable regulation.

The department was created by the Missouri legislature on March 4, 1869 to regulate the insurance industry. At that time, there were 171 insurance companies doing business in the state, and 51 were domiciled here.

Since then, the insurance industry in Missouri has grown tremendously. As of January 1992, there were 1,687 licensed insurance companies in Missouri, with 301 domiciled here. In addition, the industry wrote a total of $7.3 billion dollars in premium in 1991, and contributed approximately $141.7 million in taxes and fees to the State of Missouri.

As of 1992, the state had 6,731 licensed agencies, 80,700 licensed agents, and 8,750 licensed brokers.

Data compiled by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners indicates that Missouri ranks eighth in the number of companies based here, and ranks 18th in the amount of premium volume written. At the same time, the department's annual budget ranks 39th when compared to other states.

The Missouri Department of Insurance was a division within the Department of Economic Development prior to June 30, 1991. The department became a cabinet level agency after voters passed a constitutional amendment on August 7, 1990.

INSURANCE RELATED LEGISLATION

INSURANCE RELATED BILLS PASSED
IN THE 1992 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Workers' Compensation, House Bill 975

The bill revises the workers' compensation law. It contains the following provisions:

1. Stress claims must be work related, and the amount of stress must be extraordinary and unusual.
2. Employers are eligible for a five percent credit against premium if they have a certified safety program, and if work related injuries, illnesses and lost work time decrease.
3. Employers are eligible for a ten percent credit against premium if they have no work related injuries, illnesses or lost work time.
4. Health care providers cannot charge more for services to a patient with a workers' compensation claim, than for the same services to a private patient.
5. Doctors must communicate fully with the employee regarding the extent of the injury and the recommended treatment.
6. Employers are allowed to make payments of temporary benefits to employees.
7. The maximum fine for failure to insure or self insure is changed from $5,000 to the greater the amount of premium the employer would have paid or $25,000.
8. The Department of Insurance may set limits for policies with deductibles.
9. Rate hearings must be held in St. Louis, Kansas City, Springfield and Jefferson City.
10. The director of the Department of Insurance will establish rules on the operation of the assigned risk pool to assure that those assigned to the pool receive the same quality of service as those in the voluntary market.
11. Employers are required to file an injury report with their insurer within five days, and the insurer must file a report with the Division of Workers' Compensation five days after receiving the injury report from the employer.
12. An employer may be required to maintain workers' compensation insurance on its leased employees, and the Department of Insurance may regulate the insurance coverage of such employees.

Omnibus Insurance Law, House Bill 1574

The bill makes numerous changes in a number of insurance statutes including the following:

1. Missouri's current statute is updated to reflect the provisions of the NAIC's "Model Law on Examinations". The model law more clearly specifies the Department's authority and procedures for performing financial and market conduct examinations of insurance companies.

2. The 1990 law regarding managing general agents is applied more broadly by defining a managing general agent as one who generates or underwrites five percent of the insurer's business. The current law states ten percent.
3. The Property and Casualty Guaranty Association would not have to cover punitive damages. The association would have access to records of an insolvent insurer.
4. The Department of Insurance has the authority to require C.P.A. reports to conform to NAIC standards. Certified public accountants are required to state they are qualified under the statute, and their work papers must be retained for seven years for the Department's examination.
5. Risk retention and purchasing groups will be required to file financial information in the forms required by the NAIC. The act also requires filing of any proposed change of operation of the risk retention group with the director of the Department of Insurance.
6. The Holding Companies Act, Chapter 382, is changed to that of the NAIC's current model law.
7. This is the regulation of the NAIC's Producer Controlled Insurer Act, which is the placement of insurance business by an insurance broker with an insurer which he controls. The provisions are to become effective on January 1, 1993, but controlling brokers and controlled insurers shall have until March 1, 1993, to conform their practices to this act's requirement.
8. Property and casualty assets must be diversified.
9. Ambiguities regarding procedures are corrected in the Insurer's Supervision, Rehabilitation and Liquidation Act.
10. Beginning January 1, 1993 to December 31, 1993, original applications for a policy and any such policy renewals on coverage on property located in the New Madrid Seismic Zone, the insurer shall provide information to the applicant or policyholder regarding the availability of insurance loss caused by earthquakes. Every property and casualty insurance company which insures property for loss caused by earthquake, shall prepare and retain a written disaster plan covering earthquakes.
11. Medicare Supplement Insurance regulation is revised.
12. Insurance identification cards no longer have to contain the address of the insurer or self-insurer providing the automobile liability coverage for the insured driver.
13. Transfer of annuity obligations. Any financial institution obligated to an annuity shall notify the policyholder of the annuity at least 30 days prior to transferring or in any way conveying the annuity to any other financial institution.
14. An insurer which accepts money with an application for a policy of insurance must issue the coverage applied for within 60 days, or refund the money.

Other provisions of the bill:

A commission on State Health Insurance is created to develop programs and legislative proposals regarding health care cost and delivery.

Health care insurance programs provided to state employees who work in different areas are consolidated into one system. Participation is optional by some constitutional agencies, state higher education institutions and local political subdivisions. A board of trustees is established with powers similar to those of the current state retirement system.

Additional technical changes.

Credit Life Insurance, Senate Bill 519

The bill changes the formula used in calculating credit insurance rates. This formula must be used by the director of the Department of Insurance when revising premiums. Beginning December 31, 1992, this revision can only take place once every three years, and the director cannot deviate from the formula. The bill allows a fifteen day trial period in which all credit insurance policies may be cancelled. The act decreases the rate presumed reasonable for credit life insurance from 60 cents per $100 of coverage to 55 cents.

Health Benefit Assignments, Senate Bill 698

The bill extends current law requiring certification of chiropractic insurance consultants by the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, to employer provided self-insurance arrangements to the extent not preempted by federal law. The bill also amends current law relating to assignment of health insurance benefits, to extend these requirements to medical payment coverage included with casualty insurance policies. The benefits are not extended to workers' compensation claims.

The bill also changes various laws relating to prepaid dental organizations. It requires such organizations to maintain loss reserves in an amount necessary to pay for all liabilities arising from issued policies.

Small Employer Health Insurance, Senate Bill 796

This bill applies to insurers and similar carriers who provide coverage for employers who have 25 employees or less. The following is included in the provision:

1. Restrictions are placed on the premium rates that a carrier can charge. Adjustments in rates for claims experience, health status and duration of coverage cannot be charged to individual employees or dependents. Carriers are prohibited from using characteristics other than age, sex, industry, geographic area, family composition, and group size in underwriting without prior approval of the Department of Insurance.
2. Carriers are prohibited from transferring a small employer involuntarily into or out of a class of business.
3. Carriers are required to file an actuarial opinion annually with the director stating it is in compliance with the bill and that its rating methods are actuarially sound.
4. A small employer carrier can establish only nine classes of business, unless the department approves of more classes.
5. Carriers are required to make disclosures to small employers when soliciting business, including information on potential premium changes relating to pre-existing conditions.
6. Carriers are prohibited from not renewing a health plan except in certain instances.
7. Carriers are required to market and issue a basic and standard health benefit plan.
8. Pre-existing condition exclusions are allowed for one year unless the insured was covered by the new plan.
9. Carriers are prohibited from encouraging a small employer to exclude a certain employee from coverage.
10. A nine member reinsurance board is created that determines the net loss incurred by the program and assesses health insurers to recoup such losses.
11. A seven member "Health Benefit Plan Committee" is created.

Insurance Act, Senate Bill 831

The bill makes several changes in fraternal benefit societies and malpractice insurers.

The changes regarding fraternal benefit societies include:

1. Criteria are established for indemnification of persons who have served as director, officers employees, or agents of the society.
2. Provides that fraternal benefit societies shall be subject to the supervisory and examination authority of the director of the Department.
3. Societies are allowed to purchase liability coverage for directors and officers.
4. The society is allowed to provide benefits including life and health.

The changes regarding malpractice insurers include:

1. Chapter 383 malpractice insurance associations are required to meet many of the laws applicable to property and casualty insurers.
2. The director can order a 383 company to submit a voluntary plan for gaining a positive surplus in cases whether the director has conclusive or credible evidence that the surplus is not positive.
3. No insurance laws, except laws that currently apply to 383 companies and those mandated in the substitute, will apply to 383 companies.

In addition, this bill includes the following changes for all insurers.

1. Joint-stock companies, associations, trusts, partnerships, joint ventures, and other similar entities must meet the requirement that the capital, reserve and surplus of domestic corporate insurance be in bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness with at least the second highest designation rated by the NAIC or a nationally recognized rating agency approved by the Department of Insurance.
2. Notices sent by insurers regarding cancellation, non-renewal, refusal to write, insure or renew may be sent by a higher class of mail than required by law.
3. Accident policies offered to students of a sponsoring entity of higher learning may not limit surgical benefits to one procedure when multiple procedures are done in one operating session.
4. Life insurers may insure the risk arising from the manufacture, ownership or operation of aircraft.

NOTE: The information regarding legislation in this Annual Report is a synopsis of the bills passed by the 1992 General Assembly. The bills may, however, contain other provisions that affect the insurance industry.

In addition, when this publication went to print, these bills had been passed by the legislature, but had not yet been signed by the Governor.

ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION

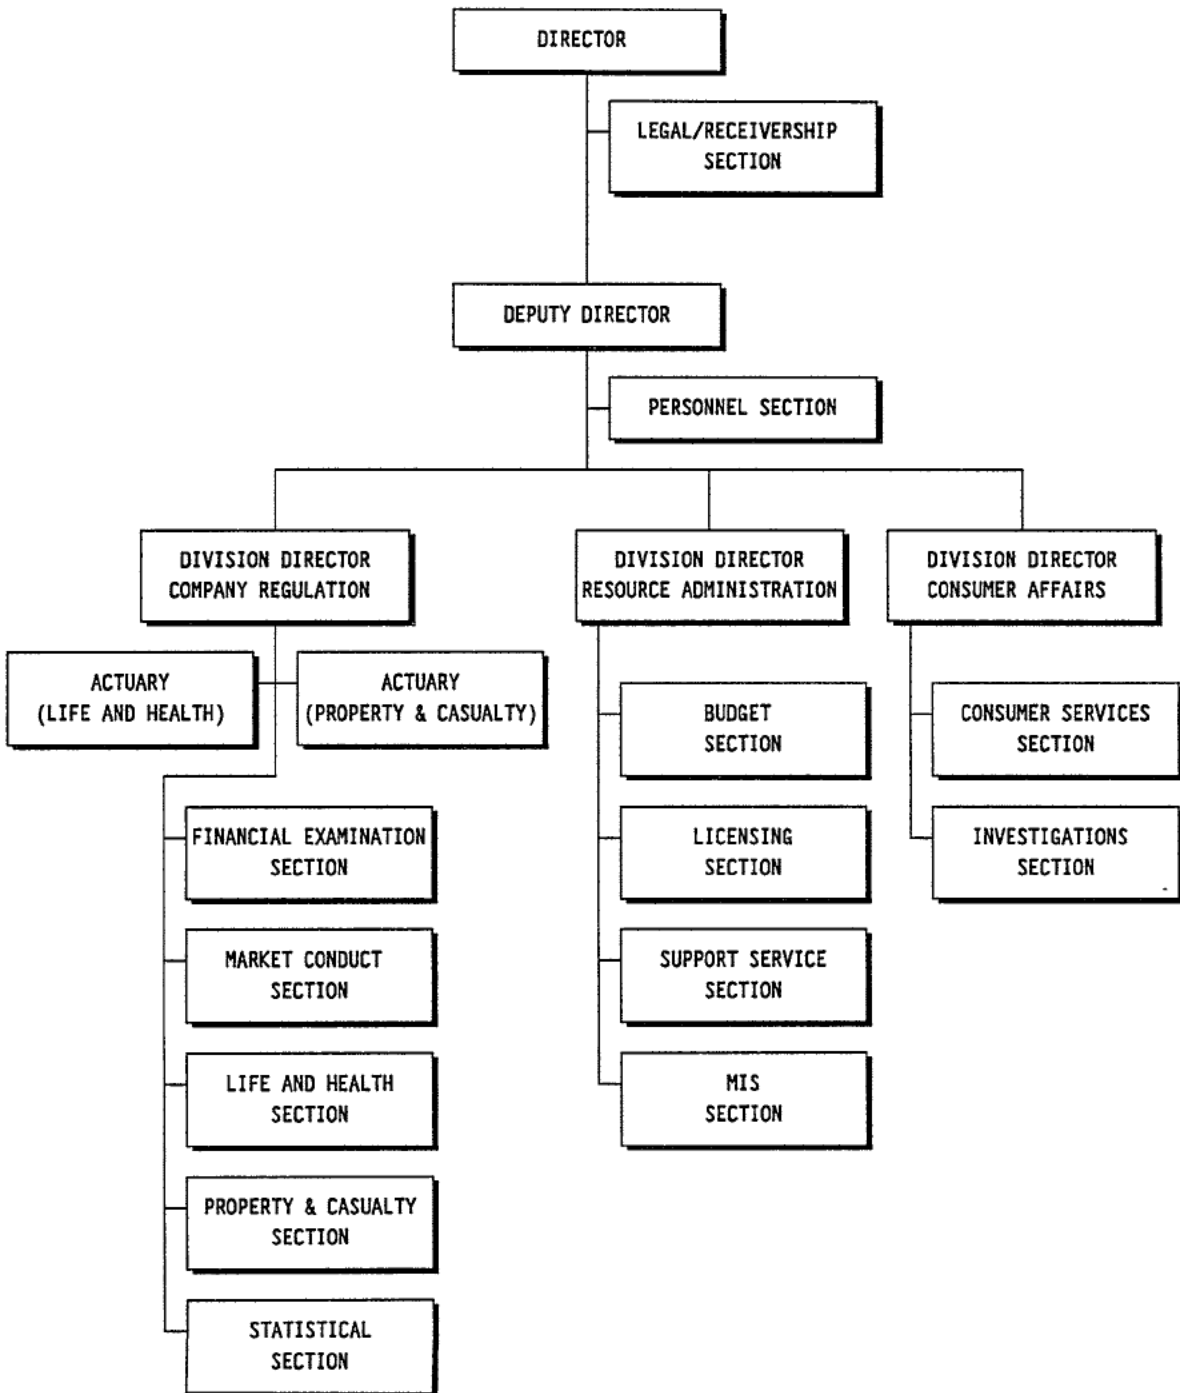

The director of the Department of Insurance is appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

The director is responsible for enforcing the laws and regulations of the state regarding insurance, setting policy, managing a staff of 165 employees, and overseeing a $3.5 million departmental budget.

The director's administrative staff includes the director of the Division of Company Regulation, the director of the Division of Consumer Affairs, the director of the Division of Resource Administration, the general counsel, an administrative assistant, program assistant, personnel officer and secretary.

The administrative staff assists the director with policy decisions, legislation and departmental operations.

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

LEGAL AND RECEIVERSHIPS

LEGAL

The primary responsibility of the legal staff is to assist the director of the Department of Insurance in the enforcement and interpretation of Missouri laws.

Department lawyers are involved in legal issues and proceedings relating to financial and market conduct examinations. They also work on rate and policy form matters involving the areas of life and health, as well as property and casualty. Attorneys also provide assistance in the filing of receivership and conservatorship documents.

The staff also represents the department before the Administrative Hearing Commission regarding licensing disputes with agents, agencies and brokers. Special investigators in the Division of Consumer Affairs gather evidence used in these licensing disputes.

Hearings conducted by department attorneys include: the acquisition or merger of insurance companies, reinsurance proposals, and changes in workers' compensation rates.

The staff assists the director in drafting proposed legislation, as well as reviewing and re-drafting regulations after new state laws are enacted.

The legal section is comprised of a general counsel, assistant general counsel, four staff attorneys, and two support staff members.

RECEIVERSHIPS

Consumers in Missouri are protected by two guaranty organizations if insurance companies become insolvent.

The Missouri Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association has been in existence since 1988. It provides life, annuity and health benefits to claimants of licensed insolvent life and health companies.

The legal and financial examination staffs share the responsibilities of monitoring, advising, investing money, and reporting on the operations of insurance companies that are in rehabilitation or liquidation. The director of the Department of Insurance supervises these responsibilities.

Eleven domestic companies were in rehabilitation or liquidation as of December 31, 1991.

DIVISION OF
REGULATION

DIVISION OF COMPANY REGULATION

The Division of Company Regulation is at the heart of most of the important issues facing the insurance industry.

The primary objectives of this division are: to ensure that Missouri residents are receiving quality insurance coverage for the premiums they pay; and to audit the insurance industry so that problems in the areas of solvency and market behavior can be alleviated before they affect the consumer.

Company Regulation is comprised of five areas including: financial examination, market conduct, life and health, property and casualty, and statistics.

Financial exams and market conduct exams are similar in two respects. They both focus on auditing the performance of insurance companies in relation to finances or business practices; and both are central to action taken by the department when improprieties occur.

The Life and Health section, and the Property and Casualty section are responsible for the review of company products, rates and underwriting rules.

The Statistics section collects data from the financial statements filed by the companies. That data is used to identify and analyze trends. In addition, there are statutory reporting requirements for certain lines of insurance. This section uses those figures to develop related reports which are available to the industry and the public.

FINANCIAL EXAMINATION

The financial examination section is administered by the chief examiner and has the following responsibilities:

1. Prevent the insolvency of domestic insurance companies.
2. Recommend appropriate legal action to limit damage to policyholders and taxpayers caused by insolvent insurers.
3. Determine the financial condition of all domestic and foreign companies operating in the state.
4. Assist financially sound and competently managed companies in becoming Missouri domestics or admitted as licensed insurers.
5. Supervise the activities and operations of excess and surplus lines.
6. Evaluate business being placed in the non-admitted market.
7. Supervise the examinations of all domestic companies in Missouri.
8. Administer and account for premium taxes and filing fees due the state of Missouri.
9. Assist the general counsel in matters pertaining to the sale of companies, hearings related to mergers, reinsurance or receiverships.

The personnel in this section include: the chief examiner, assistant chief examiner, 2 audit managers, 26 field examiners, 2 surplus lines examiners, and 6 internal staff members.

ACQUISITION AND FINANCIAL ANALYSIS

This unit analyzes the financial information of insurance companies which are involved with mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures. The information is used in hearings, and in making recommendations to the director about action to be taken.

In addition, a computerized two-stage desk audit is done of each insurer that is operating in Missouri. The first step involves a manual check of each annual statement as to assets, surplus capital, income and market value of capital deposits.

The second check involves use of the NAIC database information system, including the early warning ratios (IRIS). This check is done after insurance companies file their annual statements on diskettes with the NAIC. If an analysis shows a company may have problems in the future, it is closely monitored by requiring quarterly reports to the department.

EXCESS AND SURPLUS LINES

This unit is responsible for regulating the excess and surplus lines market. Surplus lines include coverage for risks that do not fit normal underwriting patterns, or where coverage is not available through the admitted market.

Individuals who have a Missouri property and casualty license may receive a surplus lines license by passing an examination, completing an application, paying a $100 fee, and filing a $10,000 bond.

In 1991, Missouri had 308 brokers that were licensed to sell surplus lines. Also that year, the department approved 15,577 surplus lines placements and 10,862 amendments.

Missouri surplus lines brokers are responsible for filing a report with the department on each surplus lines placement within 30 days of the effective date of the coverage. They are also required to file an annual tax report due March 1st which lists all surplus lines transactions for the previous year.

Surplus lines brokers are assessed a five percent tax on net premium written. This tax generated $4,682,812 in 1991. The law also allows an individual to self-procure insurance in the surplus lines market. Self-procured surplus coverage generated taxes of $802,620. And finally, because of audits conducted by examiners, $22,123 in previously unreported taxes was collected.

A list of Missouri approved non-admitted carriers is included in the "Insurers Section" of this report.

FIELD EXAMINATION

The department director has the authority within the Missouri Insurance Code to call for an examination of domestic insurers whenever it is deemed necessary. The division currently performs examinations on an as needed basis after reviewing a company's financial statement. Some insurance companies may be examined more often than every three years and some less.

The audit managers assign the scheduling of the exams. The examinations are paid for by the companies.

Financial audits are conducted in accordance with the procedures of the Missouri Insurance Code and the National Association of Insurance Examiners.

In 1991, financial examinations were completed on the following companies. This list does not include examinations conducted on farm mutuals.

SECURITIES

The securities unit is responsible for the control and accounting of joint deposits required by Missouri law to be held as security for the benefit of policyholders. Life companies have a reserve deposit requirement. At one time, this represented the major portion of the joint deposits. However, due to the establishment of the Life and Health Guaranty Association in 1988, companies were allowed to withdraw 80 percent of their reserve deposits immediately, followed by five percent a year for the next four years.

The securities are kept in safe deposit boxes in Jefferson City, Kansas City, St. Louis and Springfield. According to Missouri statutes, they must be eligible for deposit. Security balances are verified through financial examinations.

Certified copies of security deposits are available upon request.

Securities on deposit with the Missouri Department of Insurance as of December 31, 1991 are as follows.

Type of Deposit	Percent of Total Deposits	Total Amount of Deposits
Capital Deposit	21%	$171,014,212

PREMIUM TAX

The premium tax unit of the Financial Examination section has the responsibility for determining the amount of premium taxes insurance companies must pay.

Annual tax returns are filed March 1 for the previous year's business. After an audit, the Department of Insurance certifies to the Department of Revenue the amount of tax due from each company. Tax assessment notices for the June 1 quarterly are prepared and mailed by the Department of Revenue about April 30.

The Missouri premium tax rate is two percent. In 1991, total premium taxes collected amounted to $122,104,372 compared to 1990 tax collection of $118,573,571.

A number of tax credits are allowed against this tax including credits for: examination fees, income taxes, franchise taxes, evaluation fees, Secretary of State registration fees, health pool assessments, personal property taxes, neighborhood assistance and insurance guaranty association assessments. The total credits allowed for in 1991 were $10,801,165.

Missouri law also allows direct premiums to be reduced by dividends, returned premiums, group health benefits paid, and premiums on annuities. Deductions from direct premiums written in 1991 totaled $508,240,030. Deductions for annuities were $1,091,307,605.

Insurance companies must also collect a surcharge for the second injury fund. The rate is determined annually by the director of the Division of Worker' Compensation. In 1991, the rate was three percent.

MARKET CONDUCT EXAMINATION

The Market Conduct Examination Section is responsible for examining all companies licensed to do business in Missouri, as to their conduct in the market place. Examiners look at the performance of the industry toward the consumer, and at the competitive environment in which the industry functions.

Field examinations are conducted on insurance companies, hospital service corporations, health maintenance organizations, third party administrators and utilization review firms. The organizations whose business is examined pays the cost of having the Department of Insurance conduct the review.

Market conduct examinations targeted to a specific problem are also performed.

The team looks at many factors in determining market conduct. Examinations may include: analysis of Missouri rate structures; review of individual policy rate applications; review of policy forms, endorsements and company filings; review of company practices and procedures for marketing, underwriting, rating and claims administration.

In addition, examiners also verify that all advertising accurately represents the product sold. They also check to see that when property is unclaimed, because families can not be located in order to receive claims checks, that those funds are properly reported to the state on behalf of Missouri residents.

Finally, company products and practices are evaluated in light of the needs of the insurance buying public. Careful attention is given to all insurance department statutes and regulations that are intended to protect the consumer.

During the examination process, companies with unpaid or inadequately paid claims are directed to remit payment to the consumer or other appropriate parties to whom amounts are owed. In 1991, $131,825 in premium overpayments or claims underpayments were recovered for the consumer. In addition, because of improprieties discovered during these examinations, companies were fined a total of $83,000 by the director.

The staff is comprised of a chief market conduct examiner, assistant chief market conduct examiner, exam coordinator and 30 field examiners.

LIFE AND HEALTH

The Missouri Department of Insurance must approve all life and health insurance policies before they are offered to Missouri consumers.

The life and health section evaluates contracts and related forms marketed in Missouri to ensure that they comply with state statutes and regulations. The companies must receive formal approval before their products can be sold.

The staff reviews coverages offered by all of the following: insurers, health maintenance organizations, health service corporations, fraternal benefit societies and prepaid dental plans. Companies are continually updating their portfolios because of the development of new products or the adoption of new laws. In 1991, the section received over 12,000 form and rate filings.

In addition, the federal government has imposed stringent requirements upon states to regulate and report on Medicare Supplement insurance business. All states are required to maintain an approved regulatory program. The Life and Health Section assumes primary responsibility for maintaining this program by ensuring that the products comply with federal standards and that rates result in acceptable loss ratios.

The one other area of life and health coverage in which the rates are regulated is credit life and health insurance. Credit rate filings are reviewed to ensure that rates do not exceed those published in statute, unless the loss experience submitted with a rate deviation filing warrants an increase.

In addition to compliance activities, the staff also performs the following functions: assists in the development of regulations; answers consumer complaints; speaks to consumer groups about insurance coverage; and represents the director on several advisory boards.

This section is comprised of a supervisor, five compliance technicians and two support staff members.

PROPERTY AND CASUALTY

The Property and Casualty section reviews matters relating to policies. It inspects forms, endorsements, rules and premium rates submitted by insurance companies. The staff then determines whether the insurance companies are in compliance with state rules and regulations.

Missouri has an open competition rating system, commonly known as use and file. Companies are required to file their rates ten days after they begin using them. However, the department still monitors rates by reviewing: premium volume, market share, loss and expense experience, investment income, profitability, inflation trends, historical data and other criteria.

This section also has responsibility for oversight of the following organizations: rating, statistical, and joint underwriting associations. Among other things, it reviews licensing documents, filing of association bylaws and membership lists.

Property and Casualty also oversees state pools established to provide coverage to those who can not obtain insurance in the voluntary markets. The pools include: automobile insurance through the Missouri Joint Underwriting Association, fire insurance through the Missouri Property Insurance Placement Facility (or FAIR Plan), and the Workers' Compensation Insurance Plan. The staff scrutinizes rate, rule and form filings and makes recommendations to the director.

The oversight of workers' compensation is different than the areas described above. Rates established for workers' compensation are determined after a public hearing; and, rules and forms must be approved prior to their use by companies. In addition, the staff assists other state agencies by calculating the rates, taxes and surcharges used by employers who self-insure for workers' compensation.

Finally, the staff assists consumers with information relating to coverage and premium; and they are available to speak about property and casualty issues.

Personnel consists of a supervisor, five compliance technicians and two support staff members.

STATISTICS

The statistical staff collects, edits and analyzes information concerning the insurance industry in Missouri. They also provide actuarial, computer and technical support for the department.

The data provided by the statistical section is used to identify issues and problems within the Missouri insurance industry including: availability, solvency, rate inadequacy, rate excessiveness, market conduct and trends.

The staff compiles all data reported by companies under requirements set forth by statute and regulation. During 1991, over 5,000 statistical submissions were received from companies. All data is reviewed for accuracy and completeness before it is entered into the department's database.

This information is then used to develop reports, such as this one, and to calculate assessments for the guaranty fund.

The department also has access to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners' State Data Network. The NAIC's database contains information from the annual reports of all insurance companies which write business in the United States.

The following reports issued by the Department of Insurance are available to the public for a fee, or are available through the Missouri State Library System.

1. Missouri Market Share by Line of Business
2. Missouri Medical Malpractice (Closed Claim) Report
3. Missouri Products Liability (Closed Claim) Report
4. Missouri Private Passenger Automobile Report
5. Missouri Homeowners Insurance Report
6. Missouri Legal Malpractice (Closed Claim) Report
7. Missouri Commercial Liability Report
8. Missouri Real Estate Malpractice (Closed Claim) Report

3. Credit Insurance Experience Report
4. Medicare Supplement Experience Report
5. Mortgage Guaranty Report

DIVISION OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS

DIVISION OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS

Consumer Affairs came into it's own this year when it became a full fledged division.

Historically, consumer services had been a part of the operations section of the agency.

However, in 1991, when the Division of Insurance became the Department of Insurance, consumer services was enhanced.

As a result, the Division of Consumer Affairs now has two sections--Consumer Services and Special Investigations.

CONSUMER SERVICES

Consumer representatives serve on the front line answering thousands of inquiries each year from the public. In 1991, the staff provided information to 56,833 people, and processed 6,579 complaints.

The staff assists the public with information regarding insurance companies, health service corporations, health maintenance organizations, third party administrators, and general insurance issues. Consumers may obtain information regarding the financial status, licensing status, and number of complaints filed against companies which operate in Missouri.

The staff also acts as a liaison between the consumer and the company in resolving insurance disputes.

Every complaint filed against an insurance company in Missouri is computer catalogued according to its nature, type and disposition. This information is useful in determining whether a company is following Missouri statutes, and living up to it's responsibilities to policyholders. In 1991, consumer representatives recovered $6.7 million dollars for Missouri citizens from insurance companies that had denied claims, denied premium refunds, or disputed a settlement.

Consumer service representatives staff offices in Jefferson City, as well as St. Louis and Kansas City. In addition, the division provides a toll free hotline number, 800 726-7390, to assist consumers. It also has a phone line dedicated to taking calls from the deaf; the TDD number is 314 526-4536.

Consumer service representatives are also available to: counsel individuals about their insurance needs, review policies, conduct seminars on insurance issues, and provide consumer brochures.

The three offices are staffed by a total of 15 people.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS

This is a new section, but not a new function within the Department of Insurance.

The special investigations unit is responsible for checking out consumer fraud, as well as problems involving agents, brokers and agencies.

Special investigators also take part in a variety of other investigative assignments for the department. They are supervised by an associate general counsel with whom they file reports, and make recommendations concerning their investigations.

Once an investigative file is referred to the legal section for the filing of a complaint with the administrative hearing commission, the investigators may be called to testify.

During 1991, the unit handled 722 complaints against agents, agencies and brokers.

The staff has been increased and now includes an attorney, paralegal and four investigators.

DIVISION OF RESOURCE
ADMINISTRATION

DIVISION OF RESOURCE ADMINISTRATION

Resource Administration supports and assists the operations of other areas within the department. This section includes: licensing, support services and management information systems.

The licensing staff processes all applications for licenses and maintain records on the following: agents, brokers, agencies, bail bond agents, public adjusters, managing general agents and third party administrators. This section works closely with the attorneys and special investigators to provide the latest information on licenses.

Support Services is responsible for the accounting functions of the department, including it's $3.5 million budget. It also oversees all permanent records in the office concerning companies, and supervises word processing.

Management Information Systems develops plans and operates the data and word processing systems used within the department.

LICENSING

Licensing is responsible for processing applications for licenses for agents, agencies and brokers; maintaining computer records; continuing education records; and monitoring education courses.

In 1991, there were 78,000 licensed agents, 8,700 brokers and 6,300 agencies in Missouri. In addition, the staff issued licenses for the following: surplus lines brokers, bail bond agents, general bail bond agents, public adjusters and public adjuster solicitors.

All insurance companies are required to notify the Department of Insurance when they appoint or terminate an agent. In 1991, 87,794 appointments and 94,334 terminations were processed.

Also in 1991, renewal licenses were issued to 20,961 individuals, and 2,924 agencies; and 9,000 exams were administered.

Agents and brokers applying for a license in Missouri are required to receive pre-licensing education. Besides issuing the licenses, the staff also monitors all the schools and instructors that provide education courses.

This section also keeps education records for all licensed agents and brokers, who must complete continuing education courses. Only those people who reside in another state with mandatory education requirements are exempt from completing course work. Beginning in January 1993, proof of completion must be submitted with renewal licenses.

To date, the Department of Insurance has approved 2,600 courses that may be taken to fulfill education requirements. They include: professional designation courses, college classes, self study courses, lectures, seminars and workshops.

The staff consists of 16 members including a supervisor and an assistant supervisor.

SUPPORT SERVICES

The Support Services section is responsible for preparing and monitoring the department's budget, collecting and depositing fees, maintaining permanent department records, and performing word processing functions.

Because of new statutory authority, as of fiscal year 1992, the department will receive its budget from dedicated funds rather than from general revenue funds.

The department collects and processes the following fees that go into the dedicated fund: filing fees, licensing fees, regulatory fees, excess lines of insurance, and examiners sick leave and fund assessments. In 1991, the department collected $10.5 million in fees.

Support Services also monitors the department's 1992 budget of $3.5 million. Additional responsibilities include: payroll, procurement, accounting functions, inventory, maintenance of microfilm records and mailing.

The staff consists of 13 people.

MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Management Information Systems (MIS) section is responsible for support of all information systems and computer hardware throughout the department. This includes: application system analysis, programming and technical services support. This section is also available to assist with the transfer of data between the department and insurance companies.

For the benefit of members of the insurance industry, the following information regarding the department's management information systems is provided.

Production systems can be found on both mainframe and personal computer platforms. Applications consist of on-line and/or batch programs. Data entry support is also provided for various other sections.

Production and development systems are run on mainframe resources located at the Missouri State Data Center (MVS/ESA), Missouri Department of Economic Development (VM/ESA, VSE/ESA) and the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (VM/ESA as remote NJE).

Personal computer production systems are written in the PC-DOS environment for stand alone applications. MIS staff use OS/2 for system development and support. Personal computers use various software packages for word processing, spread sheet and data base applications under PC-DOS and Windows. Integrated software and remote communications packages are also used by field examiners and supported by the staff.
